

Lithuanian Sea Museum projects 2020 co-financed by the Lithuanian Council of Culture and Klaipeda Municipality

Dangė Flotilla

Historical ships' parade, presenting sailing traditions and cultural heritage. Motto of Dangė Flotilla 2020 – Let the wind blow the sails!

Yellow. Green. Red. BLUE!

National maritime heritage disseminating project.

1900-1940. From Ploughshare to Ship's Wheel.

New permanent exhibition covering the period of birth of the Lithuanian shipping.

Why does a ship float?

Educational exhibition established at the Klaipeda Sea Cadets School.

From Collections of the Museum.

Ship models Catalogue presenting the collection of ship models of the Lithuanian Sea Museum.

Life in a Shell

Opening of a sea mollusc shells temporary exhibition and performance, reflecting mysterious inhabitants of the underwater world. Some of the exhibits are designed for tactile perception to meet the needs of the visually impaired.

Life below the Sea Surface

Interactive book covering sea ecology topics, created in cooperation with professional artists.

To visit unreachable

3D tour for those who cannot easily move around the maritime exhibition situated under the rampart of the historic Nerija Fort.

Welcome back!

Trainings for professional development of the museum's staff in the field of visitor service, in order to enhance multiple returning visits.

Acquisition of Museum Valuables Reflecting the History of Lithuania as a Maritime State

The project aims at collecting and promoting museum valuables, and presenting them to the wide public in a digital format.

Acquisition of Museum Valuables Reflecting the History of Lithuania as a Maritime State

The project aims at collecting and promoting museum valuables, and presenting them to the wide public in a digital format.